What unique features await employees?

Praise

Surveys

With Surveys, you can ask employees about everything that matters. The feedback can then be quickly put into practice.

Find a Colleague

Sometimes there are more than enough colleagues in a company. In the module, you can easily search for them by name or even by interests.

Personal Profile

Works as an employee spotlight and helps you get to know your colleagues better – who loves rock music, or who is a passionate sports fan.

Anniversaries

Is your employee celebrating an important day, such as a birthday or work anniversary? Be there with them. Automated greetings take care of sending messages.

Badges

Even adults love motivational games. Engage them in interesting activities and collecting badges.

Marketplace

Supports mindful consumption and the circular economy. Colleagues can offer items that are still functional but no longer used. It also helps employees connect and get to know each other better.

Carpooling

Shared rides to and from work, as well as longer trips – for example, for business travel. This benefits the environment, saves money, and strengthens workplace relationships.
